

Notification of a new key user of the service

You designate your experts to us as key users of the service. They are authorized to use our software and hardware support and to work with our experts to resolve incidents or application issues.

Customer number

Company name

Company location

Salutation

☐

Mr.

☐

Ms.

☐

Other

First name

Last name

Email address

Phone number

Cell phone number

Once the key user of the service named above has been created, this person will receive a personal login for the customer portal and full contact information by e-mail. This login and the information are intended exclusively for this key user of the service and must not be shared with others.

☐ I hereby confirm that the key user of the service named above has been trained by the Interflex training team and is authorized to open tickets on the company's behalf.

